

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

It is the aim of this Compilation to furnish a practical guide in matters of Church Law and Canonical Obligation. The object aimed at has not been to set forth a complete Manual of Church Law, but to give the rules for Parish organization, etc., as they exist in the majority of our best organized Dioceses. It is hoped that the Chapters on Candidates for Orders, Standing Committees and Bishops, now added, will be found useful. Thanks are due to the many kind friends among Bishops and Clergy, as well as among the members of the legal profession, who, by their suggestions, have contributed to the value of the second edition of the Manual. The Canons of the Digest referred to throughout are the Canons of the General Convention of 1874.

NATURE AND LIMITS OF A PARISH.

I.

OF THE NATURE AND LIMITS OF A PARISH.

1. "Parish" is an ecclesiastical term, and was first used to define the jurisdiction of a Bishop. When, in process of time, the Bishop became the administrator of a Diocese, parochial jurisdiction was given over into the hands of the Second Order of the Ministry. A Parish, then, may be defined as an ecclesiastical jurisdiction where a Priest, lawfully called and admitted, has the cure of souls.

2. Limitation of jurisdiction serves to prevent disorder. Jurisdiction, whether diocesan or parochial, is a thing of ecclesiastical arrangement, and is intended to protect the clergy against intrusion in the sphere where the Church has called them to labor. As it is not lawful for one Bishop to go into the jurisdiction of another Bishop, without consent, so the Rector of a Parish has exclusive powers within the limits assigned him.

The term Parish defined.

Limitation of jurisdiction and the objects served by it.

NATURE AND LIMITS OF A PARISH.

Ascertainment and defining of Parish boundaries.

Rule where Parish boundaries are not defined.

3. "The ascertainment and defining of the boundaries of existing Parishes or parochial cures, as well as the establishment of a new Church or Congregation, and forming a new Parish within the limits of any other Parish, is left to the action of the several Diocesan Conventions, for the Dioceses respectively" Tit. III., Can. 5, § ii. [1].

4. Where Parish boundaries are not defined by law * or settled by Diocesan authority, the general law prevails: "Parochial boundaries shall be the limits as now fixed by law, of any village, town, township, incorporated borough, city, or the limits of some division thereof, which may have been recognized by the Bishop, acting with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, as constituting the boundaries of a Parish"† Tit. I., Can. 14, § vi. [2].

5. It may happen that through force of circumstances, as in our large cities and towns, territorial

* The Church has almost always made it a rule to take the existing State divisions to define Diocesan and Parochial jurisdiction.

† In some of the Southern States, e. g. Maryland, the Parishes are territorial, with metes and bounds, each Parish having its Parish Church, and often one or more Chapels. Within some of the Parishes there are separate and independent organizations known as Congregations.

limits shall have become extinct. The Church or Congregation in such an event constitutes an ecclesiastical jurisdiction, with exclusive rights: if there be no Rector, the jurisdiction is in the Bishop, acting through the Wardens and Vestrymen* Tit. I., Can. 14, § vi. [1].

6. The Parish has always been a cherished part of the ecclesiastical system of the Church of England and the Churches of her planting. It differs, it will be seen, from an ordinary congregation as a part of a greater whole, and in the acknowledgment of the principle that the source of jurisdiction is the Bishop, as head of the Diocese. Hence, when a Parish is vacant by there being no Rector in charge, jurisdiction reverts to the Bishop, and can only be exercised by the Wardens and Vestrymen acting with his consent.†

† It is a common mistake for Wardens and Vestrymen to supply a parish when vacant: but this is an usurpation of jurisdiction. It is prevented in Illinois and in the Dioceses just noted by a Canon to this or like effect: "Whenever a Parish or Mission shall become vacant, and the Wardens shall give jurisdiction is for the time being delegated ; and the Bishop has no power except as defined by Canon. Jurisdiction serves the same purpose in the case both of the Diocese and the Parish : it prevents disorder and protects the possessor for the time being against all unwarrantable intrusion on every side.

7. Primarily all jurisdiction is vested in the Bishop as head of the Diocese, and so long as the Bishop is able to perform all the duties of the Pastoral care, etc., it rests there : but when, through the multiplying of congregations, jurisdiction has to be divided, then the same rule which protects Bishops against intrusion from each other, protects a Priest from all arbitrary interference or neglect on the part of the Ecclesiastical Authority.* Tit. It shall be the duty of such Parishes thus supplied, to defray all of the expenses incidental to such occasional service. (ILL., TIT. III., CAN. 9). By Can. III., Tit. D of the Diocese of Maryland it is made "the duty of the Vestry" to notify the Bishop when a Parish becomes vacant.

OF THE ORGANIZATION OF A PARISH.

8. Inasmuch as all jurisdiction rests in the Bishop until otherwise delegated, the first step to be taken in the organization of the Parish is to notify the Bishop (or if there be a vacancy in the Episcopate, the President of the Standing Committee) of the intention to organize.* This notice should contain such information in the premises as may enable the Bishop to judge of the propriety of the act, and is to be signed by the parties respectively proposing to organize.†

necessary.

9. As the primary object in the organization of a Parish is to secure the stated ministrations of a Priest; and as this implies a permanent church building, and the holding of property, etc., legal steps have to be taken to create a Corporation which may hold the property of the Parish; be responsible for the maintenance of Divine service; and the support of a Rector. Too much care, therefore, cannot be taken to have all things done with due legal formality.

10. There is no uniform law for the incorporation of churches: the mode of procedure varies according to the law of the State in each Diocese. In the greater proportion of the States there is a general statute for the incorporation of all religious societies; some States make special provision for congregations belonging to the Protestant Episcopal Church; some, under the general charter, recognize the peculiar organization of Wardens and Vestrymen, and give to it the same legal standing as a Board of Trustees or a Standing Committee; in other States, again, the incorporation of religious societies is positively forbidden, and Parishes have to be organized under the Statute for the incorporation of railroads, literary societies, etc.

11. Alabama, California, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh, Central Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Texas, Vermont, Wisconsin and New Jersey, are organized under the General Statute for the incorporation of religious societies. The forms of procedure, for the most part, are simple ; in nearly every instance the Statute itself will be found a sufficient guide.

12. New York, Maryland, Long Island, Albany, Western New York, Central N. Y., Indiana, Michigan, and Minnesota incorporate under Special Acts: forms of procedure for most of these Dioceses will be found in Appendix B.

13. In Connecticut, Delaware, Massachusetts, Maine and Mississippi, the general Act covers the case of organizations formed under the rule of Wardens and Vestrymen ; or Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen : the Statute will furnish the necessary form.

14. Rhode Island, Arkansas, Virginia,

ORGANIZATION OF A PARISH.

West Virginia, South Carolina, Missouri, and Nevada have no general law for the incorporation of religious societies, and in some cases positively prohibit their incorporation by the legislature. In all of these States, however, religious societies are recognized and protected, and in some of them important rights and privileges are granted.

15. The mode of procedure in Kentucky, Mississippi, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh, Central Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Vermont, Florida, Arkansas, and California, is by written Articles of Association which are to be signed, and made the basis of application for an act of incorporation.

16. In the Appendix will be found the approved form of procedure for the five New York Dioceses ; for the Diocese of Pittsburgh (which, with one or two trifling exceptions, gives the rule for Pennsylvania and Central Pennsylvania) ; for the Diocese of Missouri, (which will furnish the rule for incorporation by articles of written agreement) ; and for the Diocese of Maryland. With the help of these forms and the consultation of the Statute, no difficulty need be found in drawing up Articles of Incorporation. (See App. B. C. D.)

17. The New York Statute makes provision for the organization of Free Churches where there are seven persons of full age, citizens of the United States, and a majority of them residents of the State of New York. To become incorporated they must make a certificate in writing, stating: 1st. The name and title by which the organization will be known in law; 2d. The purpose of the organization; 3d. The names of the seven trustees, of whom not less than five must be persons not Ministers of the Gospel or Priests of any denomination. This Certificate must be acknowledged before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments of deeds of land.

18. (1.) The Certificate should be in duplicate (or the original instrument copied), and both signed in full by all the parties, and acknowledged. It will not do to prove the Certificate; it must be acknowledged, and the acknowledgment must be indorsed by the proper officer on each copy of the Corporators' Certificate.

(2.) The duplicate Certificates, signed and acknowledged, are to be presented to a Justice of the Supreme Court of the District in which the church or congregation is situate, or (if in the City of New York) to a Judge of the Superior Court, for his written consent and approbation. This is to be indorsed on each duplicate Certificate, and signed by the Justice or Judge.

(3.) One of the duplicate Certificates thus indorsed must be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and the other in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the church is situate.

(4.) A majority of the Trustees constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business : provided that no purchase, lease or sale of real estate shall be made unless two-thirds of the whole number be present. Vacancies in the Board of Trustees may be supplied by the remaining Trustees at any meeting, but there must always be five persons not Ministers of the Gospel or Priests.

(5.) It is the duty of the Trustees to make and file in the December of each year in the County Clerk's office where the original Certificate is filed, a Certificate stating the names of the Trustees and officers, with an inventory of the property, effects and liabilities sworn to, and also an affidavit that the society has not been engaged, directly or indirectly, in any other business than such as is set forth in the original certificate of Incorporation.

19. The necessary legal steps having been taken to constitute the Parish a corporate body, it remains to secure formal union with the Diocese, by application duly made at the Annual Convention or Council. Here, again, care is to be taken to meet all the legal, constitutional and canonical requirements.

When the time of the Annual Convention or Council approaches * (some Dioceses require action to be taken by the Vestry a month beforehand; † in some it is sufficient to act immediately before the Annual meeting of Convention ‡), let a Vestry Meeting be duly called and application be made in writing to the Bishop (or Standing Committee) or Secretary of the Conven-use made of it, it is to be put on file by the Vestry or Trustees. Ten days after the order is granted, a copy of it is to be published in the public newspaper in the county in which the Parish is situate: and within twenty days after the granting of the order, the order and an affidavit of the publication of a copy thereof are to be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County. In all matters affecting corporate trusts it is desirable to seek legal advice before attempting change.

IV.

OF THE PARISH ORGANIZATION AND VESTRY.

Corporate title of a Parish.

24. The proper corporate Title of a Parish is, "The Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of ——" The Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen constitute the Vestry, and are the Trustees corporate and politic: when the Parish is without a Rector, the same rights and privileges are vested in the Church Wardens and Vestrymen.*

---

*This applies to the holding of the Church property, but not to its alienation. In Maryland, if the Parish be without a Rector, the Bishop must give consent before property can be sold. Every principle of jurisdiction demands some such restriction.

PARISH ORGANIZATION AND VESTRY.

25. It belongs to the Vestry to take charge of the property of the Parish; to regulate its temporal concerns; to make provision for the support of the Rector, and in case of his death, resignation, or removal, with the advice and consent of the Bishop, to supply his place as soon as possible; and in general to act as helpers to the Rector in whatever is appropriate to laymen for the furtherance of the Gospel, it being understood always that the *Spiritual concerns of the Church are under the EXCLUSIVE direction of the Rector, in subordination to the Ecclesiastical Authority and laws of the Diocese.**

The Vestry has charge of the temporalities.

26. It is a common mistake to speak of the Vestry apart from the Rector: this has arisen from the fact that in the absence of a Rector the corporate right and privilege of the Parish may, for the time being, rest in the Wardens and Vestrymen. But it is always to be borne in mind that the Rector is or ought to be an integral portion of every Parish, bearing the same relation to the Parish that the Bishop does to the Diocese. The Vestry exists to represent in law the of the distinction between the Spirituality and the Temporality.

temporality of the Parish, and as the Rector has a vital interest in the care of the temporality, the Civil Estate, with some few exceptions, protects that interest by acknowledging the Rector as the head of the corporation.*

27. The principles now laid down are of the last importance to the peace and well-being of every Parish. It sometimes happens that Wardens and Vestrymen transgress the limits of their official trust by making themselves judges in things purely Spiritual; Rectors upon the other hand sometimes stretch their exclusive powers in the matter of the Spirituality over the Temporality as well, and act without due consultation with their Vestries: but a Rector has no right to touch the material fabric, or in any other way to incur expense for which the Vestry is to be made liable without getting their consent to the same.

OF RECTORS.

28. "Rector" is a term of jurisdiction, and denotes the power to govern and direct with which a Priest is invested, who has been canonically settled in a Parish duly organized—whose settlement is without limitation of time—and whose salary is of the nature of a permanent contract.

The term Rector defined.

29. The powers vested in a Rector are properly of two kinds; he has exclusive charge under the Canons in all things affecting the Spiritual interests of the Parish of which he is an integral part; and he is, or ought to be, by virtue of his office, head of the Corporation called the Vestry.

30. The Rector, being a Priest, has, by virtue of his office, the exclusive regulation under his canonical superiors of all the spiritual concerns of the Parish.

Rector's power of two kinds.

Sent to preach the Gospel and to minister at the Altar, the Rector has at all times access to the Church building,* and has power to open the same as he may deem proper for the celebration of Sacred Rites, for Catechetical or other religious instruction, for Marriages, Baptisms, Funerals and all other Offices authorized by the Church, of which he is a Minister.

To him belongs the Spiritual direction and control of all Sunday Schools, Parish Schools, Brotherhoods, and all other Educational and Charitable Associations within the Parish: he presides at all Parish Meetings and has, ex-officio, the first place in all matters affecting the interests of his cure.*

31. In addition to these exclusive powers, the Rector is possessed of corporate powers, secured by law, and recognized by the State. The Rector is head of the Corporation;† his signature is necessary to the validity of all documents given under the corporate seal; he holds in all respects the same relation to the corporation called the Vestry as any President does to the body of which he is the head.

† Hoffman, Law of the Church, p. 262-6.

RECTORS.

31. It arises out of the constitution of a Vestry that in matters affecting the temporality of the Parish, a Rector has no power apart from the body of which he is the head. He cannot, of his own motion, alter or change the Church building or the Rectory. He cannot incur any expense or make the Vestry responsible for any obligation without their consent; in all temporal matters he is to consult the body of which he is the head.

Rector has no absolute power over the temporalities.

He cannot incur expense, etc.

32. The election of a Rector is to take place at a meeting of the Vestry or Parish duly called. The object of the meeting should be stated in the call, and the election made by a majority, or otherwise as the Statute may direct, of the votes of the Vestry or Parish, given by ballot upon an open nomination.

Mode of electing a Rector.

33. Let the Call of the Rector be made in writing and express distinctly the stipulations of support.

Call to be in writing.

34. The Call, it is to be remembered, is a legal contract, and the salary accruing under it, a debt, recoverable by process of law, of which the call is substantial evidence.*

The Call a legal contract.

36. Where it is not made obligatory by Canon, if the Vestry desire the use of the Institution Office, it may be stated in the notice to the Bishop of acceptance, and a time fixed for the same after consultation with the Rector-elect.

If the offence charged is a substantial and essential change of doctrine, amounting to the adoption of a new system of divinity, the case must come before the court, through the result of an Ecclesiastical Council (Sheldon vs. Easton, 24 Pick., 286).

* The Canons of Arkansas require the Vestry to file with the Bishop a minute of their proceedings, including the particular agreement and the acceptance of the Rector elect to the same ; and it shall be held as a firm contract. Tit. II, Can. II. For form of this notice, see App. E.

tracting parties not to break the bond without the consent of the Bishop of the Diocese.

38. If a Rector, for any cause, neglect to perform the regular service in his congregation, and refuse, without good reason, his consent to any other minister to officiate within his cure, the Church Wardens and Vestrymen may appeal to the Bishop, but they cannot of themselves disannul the jurisdiction of a Rector over his Parish.*

39. The alms and contributions at the time of the Celebration of the Holy Communion are to be deposited with the Rector, and are to be applied by him to such pious and charitable uses as he may think fit. The amount of each collection should be duly recorded, and the aggregate amount given as a special item in the Parochial Report.

40. The Canons make no provision for the division of a Rector's jurisdiction. No such office, therefore, as Associate Rector can canonically exist. If a Rector need help he may ask the Vestry for an assistant, but the person so called has no rights or powers exclusive of the Rector.†

Wardens and Vestrymen may appeal to the Bishop in case of neglect of duty.

OF THE WARDENS.

The common rule is to have two Wardens.

41. The common law is that there shall be two Wardens in each organized Parish, who may be distinguished as Senior and Junior, or Rector's Warden, and Vestry Warden, although all duties belong equally to both, and every duty which may be assigned to the Senior Warden devolves in his absence on the Junior, and both are responsible for the performance of the duty.

Duties of Church Wardens.

42. The "Church Wardens," as their name indicates, are the guardians and keepers of the Church, under the Rector, and representatives of the body of the Parish. They are to see to the Church being kept in good repair, and are to preserve order and decorum in and around the Church building during the time of Divine Service.

"Whereas, associated Rectorships are inconsistent with the usages of the Protestant Episcopal Church and, in many respects, inconvenient, Resolved, That it be recommended to the different State Conventions of this Church, not to authorize in future associated Rectorships, and when the existing associated Rectorship shall expire, not to renew the same."

VESTRYMEN.

It is made their duty to provide a proper Record Book for the Parish, and to cause to be copied therein all documents bearing on the organization and history of the Parish: they are to collect and present the alms and contributions made in the Church. ## ORGANIZATION OF A MISSION.

XX.

OF THE ORGANIZATION OF A MISSION.

Object of Mission

83. The necessity for some kind of organization in sparsely settled districts, where there is not the material for the formation of a Parish, has led, in many of the Dioceses, to the adoption of "Missions," which are intended to prevent premature attempts at Parochial organization, and to afford the Missionary help in the prosecution of his work.

How organized.

84. Any resident of a town or village may make application to the Bishop to organize a Mission,* stipulating to pay to the Board of Missions of the Diocese a fixed sum yearly for the support of a Missionary. The officers of the Mission consist of the Missionary recommended by the Bishop, a Warden, a Treasurer, and a Clerk, who may be appointed by the Missionary in charge, or after consultation, by the Bishop.

90. The Church, by Consecration, becomes forevermore God's gift, and it is not lawful for any Vestry, Trustee, or other body authorized to hold Church property, to encumber or alienate the consecrated Church or Chapel, or the ground belonging thereto, without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee; nor may any consecrated Church or Chapel be removed, taken down or otherwise disposed of for "any unhallowed, worldly or common use," without the previous consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee.*

If the Minister be a Presbyter, the Bishop at the instance of the Vestry, may proceed to have the Rector-elect instituted (Tit. I., Can. 14, § I. [3]). Institution properly conveys spiritual jurisdiction: without it the bond between Rector and Vestry is simply of the nature of a legal contract. 3. A regularly instituted Minister may not leave his Congregation against their will, without the concurrence of the Bishop of the Diocese. Tit. II., Can. 4, § VI.

An instituted Rector who resigns without the concurrence of the Ecclesiastical Authority, forfeits his seat in Convention, and renders himself ineligible to election by any other Church or Parish until he shall have made such satisfaction as the Bishop may require (Tit. 4. Every Bishop is to give and to receive letters Dimissory in event of a Minister changing his jurisdiction. Canonical residence dates from the acceptance of the letter of transfer. Tit. I., Can. 14, § VII. [1], [2].

Letters Dimissory should be addressed directly to the Bishop of the Diocese to which the transfer is made: if not presented within three months after date, the Bishop has power to cancel; he must do so if not presented within six months. Tit. I., Can. 14, § VII. [2].

INCORPORATION OF CHURCHES AND
ADMISSION OF PARISHES
INTO UNION WITH THE CONVENTION.

I.

INSTRUCTIONS AND FORMS FOR THE INCORPORATION OF A

---

I. PRELIMINARY REQUISITES.

In order to become incorporated under the amended act of 1868, it is requisite :

1. That there be a congregation actually existing, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York, containing not less than six male persons, of full age, belonging to such congregation, and not already incorporated in some other Church or congregation.

11. The congregation must have been habitually worshipping together, and must have some usual place of worship—not necessarily a Church—but some place in which they have habitually gathered for Divine worship.

II. PROCEEDINGS PREVIOUS TO HOLDING A MEETING FOR THE PURPOSE OF BECOMING INCORPORATED.

The first proceeding toward becoming incorporated is a notice of a meeting to be held for that purpose.

This notice should be reduced to writing, and at least two copies should be made. It must specify the object of the meeting, and the time and place thereof. The place of meeting must be at the usual place of public worship of the Church or congregation about to be incorporated. The notice must be publicly read in the time of Morning Service, on two Sundays next previous to the time of meeting, by the Rector, or by the officiating Minister ; or, if there be no Rector, or officiating minister, then by some other person belonging to the congregation. It is recommended that in case there be no Rector, and no officiating Minister, some one reputable person of the congregation be designated to read this notice on both Sundays immediately preceding the meeting. It must be remembered that it must be read in the time of morning service.

A suggested form for this notice is submitted herewith, marked A.

Besides reading the notice, a copy must also be posted in a conspicuous place, on the outside door, near the main entrance to the place of worship in which the congregation assemble. It will be advisable to post this notice, as required, before the commencement of the services on the former of the two Sundays on which the notice is to be read ; and to keep it thus posted until the meeting is held.

The notice posted should be a precise copy of that read to the congregation.

Before the meeting is held, it is recommended that a well bound and suitable blank book be procured, to be used as a Book of Minutes for the Vestry of the Church, in which the proceedings toward the incorporation of the Church should form the first entry.

A form for this entry is suggested, and accompanies these instructions, marked C.

It has been usual to insert in the Certificate of Incorporation under the former act, that the notice required by law, of the meeting, had been given. The same is done in the form of certificate herewith presented ; but as the statute does not require this, the statement of it in the certificate would not be evidence of it. It is important, therefore, to preserve the notice which was read in time of morning service on the two Sundays next previous to the meeting, and of which a copy was posted, as above directed.

An affidavit should be endorsed on the notice that it was publicly read, and posted (as required by the statute), and be sworn to before a Judge of some court of record, or a Justice of the Peace, or some other officer authorized to administer oaths within the County in which the Church is situate.

Appendix.

A form of this affidavit is given, accompanying these instructions, marked B.

For greater precaution, it is recommended that this notice and affidavit be attached to, and form part of, the papers on which the Certificate of Incorporation is written. Also, that a copy of the notice, and another affidavit (a precise copy of the other), also to be sworn to and certified by the judge or officer (so as to be of itself an original and duly certified affidavit), be entered in the Book of Minutes. The party making the oath, and the judge or officer, will, in this case, sign the affidavit and the jurat in the book, as well as that in the paper attached to the Certificate of Incorporation.

III. PROCEEDINGS AT THE MEETING.

At the time and place appointed for the meeting, there must be present not less than six male persons of full age; they must belong to the Church or congregation about to be incorporated and must themselves not be already incorporated (i. e., must not belong to any other incorporated Church or congregation). The presence of persons already incorporated, or belonging to other congregations, is not to be understood as prohibited; but there must be (in addition to any who may thus belong to an existing incorporated Church) six male persons of full age belonging to the Church about to be incorporated, who do not belong, at the time, to any other incorporated congregation.

If there be a Rector of the Church or congregation about to be incorporated, he must preside at the meeting. But if there be no Rector, or if he be necessarily absent, then one of the Churchwardens or Vestrymen, or any other person called to the chair, shall preside at the meeting and receive the votes.

If there be a Rector, the meeting ought to be called with a reasonable certainty of his being able to attend, as the question of the necessity of his absence may lead to embarrassment and future difficulty.

But if there be no Rector, or, there being one, and he is "necessarily absent," the persons present, entitled to vote, must call to the chair either one of the Churchwardens or a Vestryman, or some other person. If there be a Warden present, it is recommended to call him (but it is not required by the statute that a Warden or Vestryman be called in preference to some other person); if no Warden, then call a Vestryman; if neither Warden or Vestryman, call some other person to preside.

It will be found convenient to appoint a Secretary of the meeting (although the statute does not require it), to record the proceedings of the meeting. He shall also record the names of all the persons attending the meeting qualified to vote and act therein.

The meeting, being properly convened and organized, is to proceed to the business for which it was called.

The persons entitled to vote must be—

- I. Male persons.
- II. Of full age.
- III. They must belong to the Church or congregation about to be incorporated.

IV. And they must have been either—

- (a.) Baptized in the Protestant Episcopal Church ;
- (b.) Or been received therein either by the right of Confirmation, or by receiving the Holy Communion ;
- (c.) Or they must have purchased, and for not less than twelve months next prior to such meeting have owned, a pew or seat in the Church about to be incorporated ;
- (d.) Or they must, for not less than twelve months next prior to such meeting, have hired and paid for, a pew or seat in such Church ;
- (e.) Or they must, during the whole period of twelve months next prior to such meeting, have been contributors in money to the support of the Church about to be incorporated.

It will be noticed that each voter must possess four qualifications—the first three being common to all—the fourth being divisible into five several conditions, either one of which will satisfy that qualification.

The persons thus qualified shall then, at such meeting, by a majority of votes, determine the following questions :

I. By what name or title the Church or congregation about to be incorporated shall be known in law.

II. On what day in Easter Week the annual election for Churchwardens and Vestrymen shall hereafter take place.

III. What number of Vestrymen, not less than four of more than eight shall annually be elected, and shall, together with the Rector (if there be one) and the two Churchwardens, constitute the Vestry of the Church.

This is a new feature in the incorporation of Churches : formerly the number of Vestrymen was fixed by the statute, in all cases, at eight. Under the present law, the congregation may, at its organization, fix the number at either four, five, six, seven or eight. There must, however, still, as formerly, be two Churchwardens.

Appendix.

IV. The meeting shall then, by a majority of votes, elect two Churchwardens and as many Vestrymen as it shall have been determined, under the last preceding head, are to be annually elected.

It is recommended that this election of the Wardens and Vestrymen be by ballot—possibly a different mode of voting may not be in contravention of the act ; but an election by ballot will be, beyond question, within the contemplation of the act.

The polls must continue open for one hour, and may be continued open longer, in the discretion of the presiding officer ; and must be continued open longer if required by the vote of a majority of the voters present.

Before the polls are closed, two discreet persons, members of the congregation, should be called to assist the presiding officer in counting the votes, in order that they may join in the certificate. It is advisable that they be persons qualified to vote at the meeting—they may either be named by the presiding officer or be designated by the meeting.

An entry of the proceedings of the meeting, step by step, should be carefully made on the minutes ; and it is recommended that this entry be signed by the presiding officer, and by the two persons who are to join with him in signing the Certificate of incorporation ; and be also attested by the Secretary. If this be done, and any accident happen to the certificate, or it should prove imperfect, a new certificate may be made without calling another meeting of the congregation.

After the polls are closed, and the proceedings of the meeting are completed, the presiding officer, together with two other persons (who should be of those present, and taking part in and cognizant of the proceedings of the meeting) must then make out a certificate under their hands and seals, setting forth—

I. The names of the Churchwardens and Vestrymen elected.

These names should be written out in full ; not by the mere initials of the Christian name.

II. The day in Easter Week fixed for the annual election of their successors.

III. The number of Vestrymen (not less than four nor more than eight) determined upon to be annually elected to constitute part of the Vestry.

IV. The name or title by which the Church or congregation shall be known in law.

A form for this certificate is suggested, and accompanies these instructions, marked D.

Appendix.

The seals to be attached to the certificate must be of wax, or wafer, or other material capable of receiving an impression, and constituting what is ordinarily known as a "seal" to deeds, &c., in this State; not unfrequently use is made of the scroll, [L. s.,] which is not sufficient, and does not answer the legal requirement of "a seal" in this State.

The certificate thus made out, and signed and sealed, must be duly acknowledged by the parties signing and sealing the same, or the execution and acknowledgment thereof must be duly proven before some officer authorized to take the acknowledgment or proof of deeds or conveyances of real estate, to be recorded in the County where the Church or place of worship is situate.

The proper United States internal revenue stamp must be affixed, which at present (May, 1868) is a five cent stamp.

Being thus signed, sealed, acknowledged or proven, or stamped, the certificate must be recorded by the Clerk of the County, or by the officer whose duty it is, or may hereafter be made, to record such instruments in the County in which the Church is situate.

In New York, Kings and Westchester Counties these certificates are to be recorded in the office of the Register; possibly a similar office may hereafter be created in other Counties; and it will be important in all cases to see whether the duty of recording such instruments has been transferred to any other officer than the County Clerk.

IV. REMARKS.

Canon IV. of this Diocese (as amended, November, 1867), requires that a Church or congregation, applying for admission into union with the Church in this Diocese, shall produce "a certificate of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence, or of his inability or disability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, of the Standing Committee, that he or they approve of the incorporation of said Church, and that said Church, in his or their judgment, is duly and satisfactorily established."

Although the latter part of this certificate could not be given previous to the incorporation, it is advisable in all cases to be assured of the approval of the Ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese before proceeding to incorporation.

In case the new Church is formed within the Parochial limits of any existing Parish or Cure, the consent of the Minister of the Parish or Cure within which the proposed new Church is to be established, or in his absence, the consent of the Churchwardens and Vestrymen, or Trustees of the congregation, or a majority of them, is required by Clause 1, Section VI., Canon XII., Title I., of the General Convention, to a Minister's officiating within said Parish, with a view to such incorporation. Such consent should, in all cases, be applied for. If it cannot be obtained, the establishment of new Churches or congregations within the limits of other Parishes is vested in the Bishop of the Diocese, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee—(Clause 2, Section II., Canon V., Title III., of the General Convention). If there be no Bishop, this power is in the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese.

It must be remembered that the corporation dates its existence from the recording of the certificate; and this must be an authenticated recording in accordance with law. An instrument may be transcribed and copied into the books of the proper office, and yet not be legally recorded; the absence of a stamp, if the law makes one necessary to the recording, or a material defect in the certificate of acknowledgment or proof of execution, will prevent its being a legal recording.
